Consolidated on An Issue Favoring War Against Turkey—Insurgents and Turks Engaged—Bulgarian Elections Will Have Radical Results

Sofia, Sept. 24.—A dispatch received here today states that in a battle between 7,000 Turkish troops and a revolutionary force near Kotschani last Friday, 600 Turks were killed. Later the Turks pillaged and destroyed a number of Bulgarian villages out of revenge for their losses.

Constantinople, Sept. 24.—(Bulletin)—Word has been received here that a fierce battle is in progress in Kresna pass in the mountains of Macedonia, between Turkish troops and insurgents. The Turkish casualties are reported to have been thus far 325 men, including five officers, while the insurgent loss is placed at 20 killed and injured.

Sofia, Sept. 24.—In the light of the delicate condition of the relations between Bulgaria and Turkey the parliamentary elections in October promise to be hotly fought and to have radical results. All the opposition parties have consolidated on an issue favoring war against Turkey. In the meantime, the popular excitement over the state of affairs in the Balkans continues unabated despite the fact that the diplomatic representatives at Sofia are busier than ever trying to patch up a scheme which will insure peace. The most active of these representatives is the Russian envoy, M. Bachmeteff.

Berlin, Sept. 24.—The Tageblatt today in all seriousness publishes an article by Edward Mygind a well known writer, in the course of which he says: "An influential American recently informed me that the United States will soon seize Constantinople and thus settle the Balkan question."

Constantinople, Sept. 24.—It is officially announced that in the fight between Turkish troops and insurgents at Mishino, five miles from the Bulgarian frontier yesterday the Turks lost seven killed and seven injured, while the insurgent loss was 45 killed and 44 captured.

TRIPLE WEDDING

Three Sisters on Same Night Married Three Young Men None of Whom Were Acquainted Before Meeting Their Future Wives

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 24.—A triple marriage that is perhaps without a parallel in Pennsylvania took place in Braddock last night, the brides-elect being three sisters, daughters of one of Braddock's prominent families. The principals will be Miss Nellie E. Jennie and Blanche K. Small, and Ira Snyder, Clyde C. Cotter and Harry W. Martin.

The triple wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Small, parents of the girls, by the Rev. William F. Slade, pastor of the First Congregational church of Braddock. Only the families of the contracting parties attended. Nellie Small wed Mr. Cotter, Jennie became Mrs. Martin and Blanche married Mr. Snyder.

A strange coincidence in connection with the triple wedding is that none of the young men were acquainted with each other prior to meeting the Misses Small and each of them met their future wives the same week.

PEOPLE DESTITUTE IN WEST INDIES

St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, Sept. 24.—The Gazette of the British island of St. Kitts, says:

"The moment for the helping hand of the government to be extended cannot be much longer delayed if the laboring population of the islands of St. Kitts and Nevis are to be kept from starvation. An appalling condition of poverty exists. The estates have been compelled to lessen their expenses owing to the long drouth, and able-bodied men and women are, hardly earning enough to supply their daily wants."

LATE ADVOCATE TELEGRAMS BOILED DOWN

Late News Dispatches Telling of Important Events in a Very Few Words.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Messenger boys in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company's downtown offices struck this morning for more pay and shorter hours. The boys demand an increase from $4.50 to $6 a week, $1.25 for nights and an eight-hour day. The managers say they can fill the places of the strikers with girls, as they did in the last strike.

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—William Dillard, colored, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment for issuing fraudulent Chinese certificates. Dillard was a trusted clerk in the internal revenue office.

Kansas City, Sept. 24.—Before the structural iron workers' convention was called to order today, Secretary Johnson said that henceforth the proceedings would be routine. Sam Parks, despite the victory, is in no jubilant frame of mind today. His friends say he is physically exhausted and he enters no denial of the reports that he will not be able to see the convention through. It is apparent that the strain is telling on him.

NORWICH FIRE

TRAINLOAD OF WATER WAS SENT FROM NEWARK.

Track Blocked All Night—Fire Could be Seen Eight Miles Away—One Woman Hurt.

The fire at Norwich Wednesday afternoon, an extended account of which appeared in Wednesday's Advocate, destroyed a dozen freight cars, three houses and a barn, and blocked the B. & O. tracks all night.

The moment the oil explosion took place as the broken trains ran together the burning oil fell on the row of houses at the south side of the track, and in a few minutes three of them were in flames, and burned to the ground. On account of the intense heat it was impossible to get near to attempt to save the burning buildings. Water was so scarce that little could have been done anyway.

The undamaged sections of the train were pulled out of the road, and several small buildings in the path of the flames were torn down.

All the inmates of the houses had narrow escapes. The fire licked the buildings up in such short time that there could be no attempt to try and save anything.

The only person injured was Mrs. Michael Powers, who went back into the house to secure $100, which was there. She was driven back by the flames and fumes of the gasses and was forced to jump from a high back porch and was painfully bruised.

Three houses were reduced to masses of embers in fifteen minutes after the explosion occurred, and then efforts of the people were directed toward preventing the destruction of the entire row of houses on that side of the track.

On the north side of the track and 100 feet from the wreck the house of Mrs. Kelly was saved only by heroic efforts. The fence was burned from the front and all the paint was scorched from the front of the house.

Engineer John Thurnburg was sitting on the porch of his house, next to that of Mrs. Kelly. He saw a wreck was imminent, and a moment later was compelled to run to escape the fierce heat.

The explosion tore up a deep hole in the ground, and the track was torn up for a considerable distance.

The oil and naphtha soaked coal and coke burned with a roar resembling that of a gas well, and the noise could be heard a half mile away, and flames and smoke mounted high in the air. The pillar of flame was seen as far as eight miles away.

Eight hours after the collision and explosion a flame 50 feet high shot up from the wreck. All trains had to be detoured.

A large force was engaged all night in constructing a temporary track around the wreck. The work was completed at 5:30 o'clock a. m. and trains began running over the main line. As there was not an adequate supply of water in the village, the fire raged until a late hour Wednesday night. A train loaded with water in tanks was taken down from Newark, and assisted materially in subduing the flames.

The first trains to come through on the B. & O. tracks Thursday morning were passenger trains Nos. 7 and 14.

TERROR

Still Reigns in Jackson, Ky.—J. Bruce Little, a Lumber Agent, is Under the Ban.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 24.—Advices from Jackson, Ky., indicate that a virtual reign of terror is still on there. Several persons identified with the prosecution of feudist Curt Jett, convicted and sentenced to be hanged after the trial at Cynthiana, Ky., several days ago for the killing of Town Marshall Cockrill, have been threatened with death, it is said. J. Bruce Little, one of these under the ban, is Kentucky agent for a Cleveland lumber firm. He has been forced to move to Lee City, Ky., and makes weekly trips to Jackson, never daring to stay there over night. The firm has written him to recommend some one to take his place if he is killed.

BUYERS SHAMROCK 1.

New York, Sept. 24.—Shamrock 1, with which Sir Thomas Lipton began his campaign for America's cup, has been purchased from the Irish knight by General Deplana, of this city. The price is not made public. If Mr. Deplana finds that it can be converted into a yawl or schooner for cruising, he will use her. Otherwise she will be broken up and sold as metal.

GRAFTED

Skin of Negress and the White Girl is Turning Black—The Doctors are Puzzled

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 24.—The skin of a negro girl was grafted upon the arm of Miss Annie Ellison, the daughter of a farmer near Wathena, Kan., a year ago, and the skin of the white girl is now turning black.

A year ago the girl was thrown from a wagon by a runaway team and the skin was torn from her left arm from the shoulder to the elbow. Skin grafting was necessary, and no one else being present from whom to take the skin, a negro girl employed in the family offered herself. The skin grafting was done by Dr. Thomas K. Sawyer, of this city. He explained that the outer skin only is used in grafting, and that the layer which contains the coloring matter is not transferred in the process.

The wound healed in a few weeks and was then very red, with dark spots in it. Dr. Sawyer said the dark spots would disappear in the course of time, but they grew darker and larger, until the entire spot where the wound had been was covered with skin as black as that on the negro girl.

Miss Ellison is engaged to be married to a young farmer of the neighborhood. The wedding is set for December.

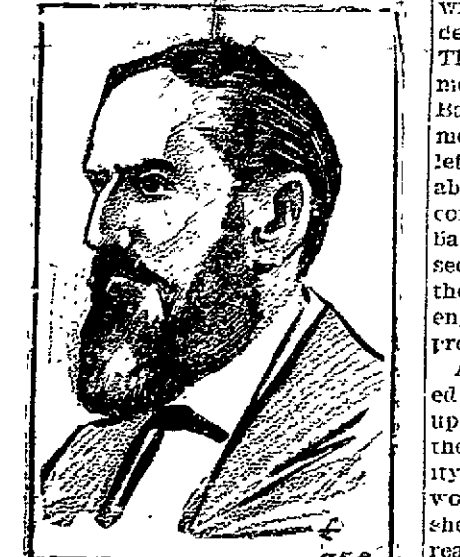

The girl is 19 years old and is one of the prettiest young women in that part of the state. She was reared on the farm and has always been active and healthy. Notwithstanding this the surgeons say there was something in her skin that made it readily adapt itself to conditions that were unfavorable when the skin of the negro girl was grafted upon it. It is the only way they can account for the strange phenomenon.

Dr. Sawyer has had a wide experience in skin grafting and skin diseases, and says he hopes to arrest the progress of the black color.

FORGAVE 40-YEAR GRUDGE AGAINST WHOLE COUNTY.

The War Eagle of Kansas Journalism Will Step Foot into Enemy's Country.

Leavenworth, Kas., Sept. 24.—For 40 years Col. D. R. Anthony, "Fighting

Dan," the "War Eagle of Kansas Journalism," treasured a grudge. Col. Anthony is the owner and editor of the Leavenworth Times. No newspaper man in the United States has had a career filled with more strenuous incidents. Shot at, bricked, beaten and cursed, he is still in the ring despite his 50 years.

But advancing years has somewhat mellowed the colonel's mind, and on his 50th birthday the other day he forgave his treasured grudge. Never before has he forgiven anything. He creeds is to fight to the death.

When Anthony came to Kansas his hatred of slavery sent him head over heels on the underground railroad over which slaves were routed from slavery in Missouri to freedom in Kansas. One day Col. Anthony, who got his title in the war by leading a regiment of Kansas rough riders, and his friend, Col. Abernathy, now deceased, were raiding in Platte county. A crowd of Platte county bushwhackers surrounded them. Col. Anthony escaped and swam the Missouri river.

His comrade, Col. Abernathy, was caught, and the bushwhackers, after stripping him, tied him on a raft and set him adrift in the Missouri river. Several miles down stream the raft was caught on a small sandbar. Abernathy worked at it all night and finally, near morning, loosed himself. Then he swam and swam to shore. For this Col. Anthony treasured his grudge against Platte county and all who lived in it. He felt it fat at every opportunity. But now, as a concession, he is forgiven everything, and is content with a visit to Platte county, in which he has not set foot for 40 years.

The proportional increase in the population of the cities was less during the past ten years than previously.

The large number of calendars issued each new year is sufficient to give every man, woman and child three or four.

BANDIT

KILLED BY HEROIC EXPRESS MESSENGER IN OREGON

Another Robber Wounded and Captured.

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 24.—One bandit was killed, another wounded and captured and Engineer Oliver Barrett shot in an attempt to hold up the Atlantic express on the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company's line at Corbett, 30 miles east of this city, last night. The wounded robber was caught by a posse at daylight today. He gave his name as Jim Connors. The dead bandit has not been identified. Barrett is not seriously wounded, but it is feared he will lose his left arm.

There were four men in the gang, two making their appearance about a mile out of Troutdale. They climbed off the blind baggage over the tender to the engine and, covering the engineer and fireman with revolvers, ordered them to run the train to Twenty-one mile post. This was done, and when the train had come to a stop, two other masked men came out of the brush and joined the first two. The newcomers ordered the fireman and engineer off the engine and, handing them two long poles, on which were sticks of dynamite, compelled them on pain of death to march to the express car and order the messenger to open the door. He did not, they were to use the dynamite to blow open the door. The engineer and fireman marched down to the express car, the bandits meantime keeping up a fusillade to intimidate the passengers. Arriving at the car, Barrett asked the messenger, Fred Korner, to open the door, but received no answer. The bandits then took the poles from the engineer and fireman, placed them against the door and lighted long fuses. The entire party then returned to the engine, remaining there until the dynamite had exploded.

The return to the express car was then begun, two of the robbers leading, the engineer and fireman following them.

The messenger's sleep was disturbed by the explosion of dynamite which killed him, but when the party was within 20 feet of the car he gave evidence that he was alive by opening fire. The first shot went through the forehead of the bandit's heart and then struck Barrett in the left shoulder. Several more shots were fired, one of the bullets striking another bandit, but he was able with the assistance of his two companions, to get away, the uninjured bandits having determined, after the second man was hit, to make no further effort to rob the express car. The engineer and fireman were allowed to proceed to the engine unmolested.

As soon as news of the hold-up reached Portland a special train was made up and the sheriff and a posse went to the scene. Hasty search of the vicinity resulted in the capture of the wounded bandit. He had a load of buckshot in the head. His two companions, realizing that they would be captured if they remained with Connors, abandoned him and fled toward the Columbia river, where it is believed they secured a boat and continued their flight.

The railroad company has offered $1,000 reward for their capture.

BONANZA HARVEST

In Russia Makes Inhabitants Temporarily Forget Anti-Jewish Agitation—Gratest in History.

Kishineff, Sept. 24.—The anti-Jew agitation has been temporarily forgotten in the excitement attending the greatest bonanza of a harvest in the history of Bessarabia. The railroads are utterly unable to cope with the amount of grain offered for transportation. Forty locomotives only are being employed where 200 are needed. The accumulation of grain is now sufficient to fill 20,000 cars.

Most of the grain is piled on the station platforms which are uncovered. Bad weather before the accumulation can be cleared, would result in great losses to the farmers.

New York, Sept. 24.—The Republicans and the Citizens' Union city conventions met last night and nominated Seth Low for mayor, Edwin M. Grant for comptroller and Charles V. Fornes for president of the Board of Aldermen.

The nomination of Mayor Low was made unanimously, the nominations of the other candidates following.

GENTLEMAN BURGLAR

Whose Tastes Run to Articles of Feminine Wear Landed by the Police in New York--Prisoner Is Eighteen Years of Age

New York, Sept. 24.—A "gentleman burglar," whose tastes run to articles of feminine wear, was arrested after a hunt of more than two months. The man said he was Harry Hughes, 18 years old, a female impersonator. When the police searched the rooms after the prisoner had been locked up, a handsomely embroidered laundry bag was found, which contained more than 200 keys of all shapes and sizes, a puff and rouge box, camera, silver-backed toilet articles and a wagonload of tailor-made female clothing. Some of the latter included petticoats and silk underskirts, which Hughes confessed he had stolen from flat houses in the vicinity of East Fortieth street during the past two months. Hughes' chief weakness is golf capes, and one he had gained possession of somewhere was of a green and white checked plain of unique shape. Yesterday he was seen on Third avenue, wearing the garment, dressed fashionably and carrying a gold headed cane. Detective Walsh arrested him. Hughes said he had been out of employment for some time and that robbing flat houses was much more easy than impersonating women. When taken to the cell he insisted on having his rouge box and puff.

TWO MEN KILLED

And Two Others Fatally Injured in a Head On Collision Near Canal Dover Wednesday Night on C. & P. Road

Canal Dover, O., Sept. 24.—Two men were killed and two others fatally injured in a head-on collision on the Gosport branch of the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad near the Beaver Dam coal mines at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday night. Just where to place the blame for the accident is a mystery, but it is thought to be due to a misunderstanding of orders by one of the crews. Fireman Buchanan, of Wells-ville, and Brakeman McWilliams, of Cleveland, were both on a light engine and were instantly killed, their bodies not being taken out of the wreck until this morning. Engineer S. E. McElroy and Conductor Mart Lampert, both of New Philadelphia, were probably fatally injured. Brakeman J. M. Knisely of New Philadelphia, was also slightly injured.

A STRANGE REQUEST MADE BY A SON

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 24.—Desiring to take his father's place in the state penitentiary where he has served eight years of a life sentence for murder, Dr. W. P. Rushing of Albany, Wednesday wrote Governor Terrell as follows: "Mine is a strange request. My father is incarcerated in the state penitentiary under life sentence. He has been there for eight years. There is not a mitigating circumstance connected with his crime upon which to base hopes of a pardon. His record as a citizen and in his family was exemplary up to the commission of the crime. He longs for freedom. I can see no way to obtain it for him except by substitutionary suffering for him. Is such allowable? If so, I am willing to take his place for a period at least, while he has temporary liberty before he dies. Can you grant my request?"

ORDER

Is Issued by the D. & H. Coal Company Placing Eleven Thousand Miners on Half Time.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 24.—The order issued by the Delaware and Hudson Coal Company, placing its eleven thousand miners on half time until further notice, is the first move taken by the coal carrying roads to restrict the output, to maintain the present coal prices pending the sale of the enormous surplus stock of anthracite now stored along the big lines. The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company will close many of its collieries for repairs; the Susquehanna Coal company, which is controlled by the Pennsylvania railroad, will suspend on Saturday and Monday of each week at its several collieries and the suspension will be the result of action not taken in many years before. Despite the enormous output of the present year and the falling off in the demand, the companies have succeeded in maintaining circular prices, and it is announced that the purpose of suspending collieries producing the least marketable kinds of coal will be closed for an indefinite period and all mines worked half time.

The order will affect many thousands of men in every community of the anthracite region. Cold weather is expected to sharpen trade and relieve the situation.

An Hour is the Amount of Oil Now Flowing From the New Well at Croton, O.

Croton, O., Sept. 24.—W. D. Fulton, of Newark, president of the Croton Gas and Oil Company, and Attorney Frank A. Bolton, of Newark, one of the stockholders, were here today to witness the attachment of a pumping apparatus to their gas and oil well near here.

Before beginning to pump, however, the well developed a flow of earth for an hour, which has been kept up all afternoon.

The well is said to be the best oil well in this part of Ohio, and the companies are to be congratulated on their new development.

X RAYS

Being Used in Treatment of Epilepsy on Miss Elsie Winkler, Aged 16 Years.

New York, Sept. 24.—Miss Elsie Winkler, aged 16, of this city, is under treatment for epilepsy by application of the X-ray in the post-graduate hospital. J. H. Branth, who took charge of the case several months ago, says that the treatment so far has been successful. While too conservative to declare that the X-ray will effect a certain cure until he has had the patient a longer time under his observation, Dr. Branth is at least convinced that it is by far the most successful treatment yet attempted. Miss Winkler has been subject to epileptic attacks sometimes as often as twice a day ever since she was ten years old.

STOLE BODY

Of His Own Child and Sold it to a Doctor, is the Charge Against a Toledo Man.

Toledo, O., Sept. 24.—McClelland Rockwell, an oil driller, has been arrested, charged with the unnatural act of stealing the body of his own dead child and selling it to a physician for a "subject." The arrest was made by Detectives Kruse and McCord, and the charge of removing a corpse without permission was placed against him.

The alleged crime was committed in October, 1901. The child, when born, was found to be afflicted with hydrocephalus and it lived but a few hours. It was taken to the undertaking establishment of D. J. Murphy, from which place the father is alleged to have stolen the body. Rockwell was recently married to a 16 year old girl.

TWO SCHOOL DRESSES.

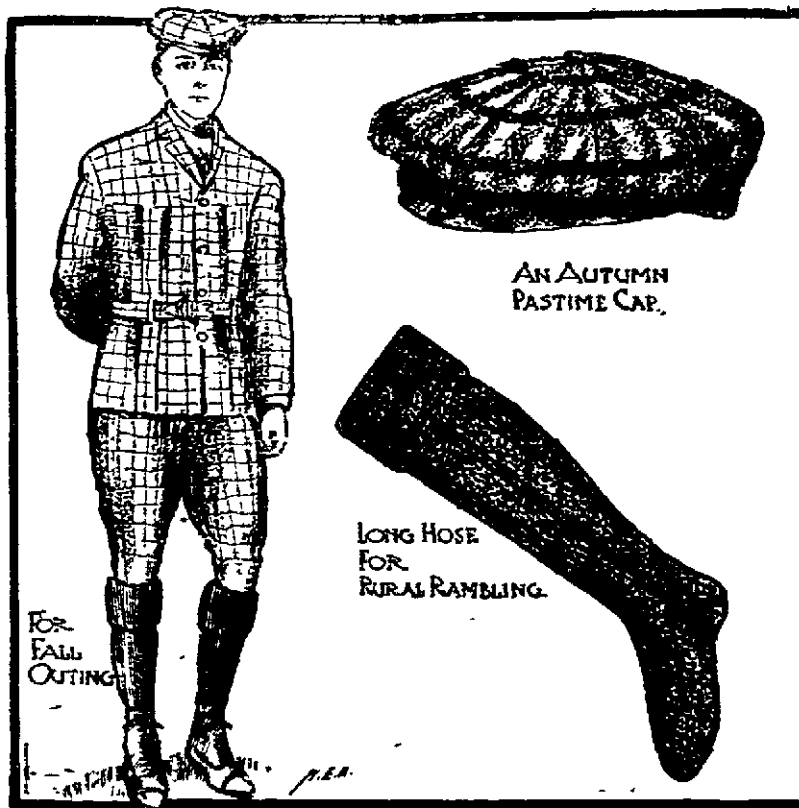

On the left is shown a school frock of plaid serge trimmed with bands of broadcloth. The colors are deep brown and red, with touches of purple. The bands of broadcloth are in red.
On the right is a nobby school two-piece jacket suit of tan cloth, trimmed with stitched bands of tan taffeta and large pearl buttons. A shirt waist is to be worn under the box jacket.

LITTLE GIRL'S FALL COAT.

Navy blue broadcloth with buttons and fawn cloth braided in black soutache as trimming, makes this smart garment for juvenile wear. Both back and fronts are loose, with a shallow cape extending around the shoulders, the stole ends being of the light colored goods. This latter also forms the cuff, which also reaches half way to the elbow, the puff being left to hang loose outside the cuff. The buttons shown are in three sizes. The sailor has fluffy little silk balls perched saucily on the brim and dangling from the crown, where a scarf of blue silk is jauntily knotted.

LATE STYLES FOR FALL OUTING.

New York, Sept. 24.—There remains are many kinds of Norfolk, but the kind which has broad pleats on each side with a simple shoulder, the pleats repeating themselves in the back, is the proper caper. The belt is of the leather in the coat and runs all the way round.

The smart thing is to have the "knicker" of the same material as the coat, which is preferably of stout homespun in a dark mixture. Men who like extreme things will affect the box cloth extensions at the knee, but quiet taste will suggest the simple band finish. If the outing man takes his wheel along, he'll find knickerbockers very much better, of course, than long trousers.

"Money seemed but poor and paltry compared to health, and yet a few dollars invested in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me good health. I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was frightful, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of its advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. AMUSEMENTS.

"An Indiana Romance," one of the most successful pastoral comedy-dramas of the past decade, will be seen at the Auditorium tonight. The scene of this strong play is laid in Indiana and the drama is said to be an idyl of middle western life. The company presenting it is a large one and includes Miss Etta Dean, Miss Effie Bond, Miss Maudie Swiggett, Sager Dean, Will R. Walling and Joseph Dammary. There is a strong moral to the play, and the sermon is so prettily told and the incidents and exciting situations leading toward its development are so skillfully contrived that no one ever knows he or she is being preached at until it is all over and go home to think about it.

ALL NEXT WEEK.

Miss Verna May and her company of players will begin a week's engagement at the Auditorium, starting Monday, September 28. This company is headed by this clever little actress, Verna May, and patrons can rest assured of a good week's amusement when this popular star holds the boards. The supporting company is strong and well balanced. Six high class vaudeville artists are carried, who will introduce specialties between the acts. Prominent among them are Miss May and Mr. Melville in a new musical act, Peters and Walters the comedy duo, Silvers and Baxter, in illustrated songs and the great Kinetoscope, showing all the new motion pictures including the New York sensation, "The Fireman's Dream." The play for Monday night is the great comedy drama, "Among the Mormons," a play full of heart interest and comedy situations. Plays for the week are "The Village Square," "The Mobile Express," "The Lion and the Mouse," "Break for Liberty," "Golden Nuggets," "Cinderella," and others. A matinee will be given on Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

WATCHED THE WOMAN

And by Doing So Caught the Man Who Is Accused of Robbing Railway Station at Alexandria. Hunter Arrested at Coshocton

Henry H. Hunter, alias Harry H. Hunter, was arrested in Coshocton on Wednesday evening, and Police Chief James Sheridan went to that town on Pan Handle No. 20 the same evening and brought the prisoner to Newark. Hunter is supposed to be the man who broke into the T. & O. C. depot at Alexandria, and stole $23.81 and afterward pulled a revolver on Chief Sheridan when the latter attempted to arrest him.

Hunter made his escape, although the officer emptied five chambers of his revolver at his fleeing form, as he ran down Twelfth street.

Hunter was known to be living in Newark with a woman named Bryson, and had been in Newark about a year living on Buena Vista street, and later on Drumm street. It was decided to watch the woman's movements and this was done. Wednesday afternoon a cab went to East Newark for the woman and she was driven to the Pan Handle depot where she bought two tickets for Coshocton. A telephone message was sent to Coshocton to watch the evening train when it arrived there, and arrest the woman and any man accompanying her. The police got word that Hunter was arrested and Chief Sheridan and Holly Jamison went down and brought him to Newark. The Bryson woman accompanied them back voluntarily as there is no charge against her.

Thursday morning Walter M. Skonjon, a T. & O. C. detective of Columbus, filed an affidavit against Hunter, charging him with breaking into the depot at Alexandria, while James S. Sheridan signed one charging him with carrying concealed weapons. Attorney Edward Kibler represented Mr. Skonjon, and B. G. Smythe the prisoner at his preliminary hearing before Mayor Crilly.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES

Are Made by James C. Baker in Suit for Divorce and Alimony—Granville Man Declares His Wife Tried to Poison Him

James C. Baker, by his attorney, Gil C. Daugherty, has filed a petition in the Common Pleas Court, asking for a divorce from his wife Jennie J. Baker. The parties to the suit were married February 15, 1899, and there are no living children of the marriage. For cause of action the plaintiff charges the defendant with gross neglect of duty in refusing to perform her household duties in a cleanly and proper manner; that she has been sulky and pouty in her treatment of him, frequently refusing to talk to him for weeks at a time, and that it has been her study during her married life to be mean and disagreeable to him.

Plaintiff says that on one occasion in the month of August, 1899, she attempted to take his life by putting glass in biscuits which she baked for him, and that on or about October 25, 1899, she made an effort to poison him and that her nephew who was visiting at their home ate or drank that which she had prepared for the plaintiff, and that he died from the effects of the same.

Plaintiff says that defendant has a farm located in Granville township, on which they resided until the 13th of January, 1902, when defendant left, saying that she would never return.

and live with him again, and that she has not done so.

Plaintiff says that the defendant's farm is worth $2000, and that she has in money, notes, and credits $3000 in addition to the farm, that the farm has been improved, cleared, fenced and repaired by his labor, and thereby enhanced in value to the extent of not less than $800, and that he has not received anything for his labor.

Plaintiff also says that he is without means or property and is in poor health, and he asks reasonable alimony be awarded to him out of the defendant's property, taking into account the value of his services to the defendant and the condition of his health.

The parties to the suit are both residents of Granville township. It will be remembered that a nephew who was visiting at the home of the Bakers several years ago, died very suddenly, and that Baker was arrested and lodged in jail on the charge of causing his death. The grand jury at the January term, 1900, however, failed to indict him, and he was discharged.

C. Nugent's rural comedy drama masterpiece.

The Way to Identify Her.

Agnes and Ethel are the kind of twins it is difficult for intimates of the family to distinguish apart. They are four years old and a source of despair to mere acquaintances.

A friend of the family met one of the twins on the street the other day and asked:

"Now, which are you, Agnes or Ethel? I simply can't tell you apart." "I'm Agnes," giggled the small maiden, and then she put one of her chubby little fingers in her mouth and mumbled: "You can tell me easy. I'm the one with the loose tooth."—New York Press.

TELEPHONE SERVICE

Less than ten years ago the telephone was a luxury enjoyed by 160 subscribers in Newark. Today there are at least 2,000 telephone users in this city.

The Newark Independent Telephone company which by cutting the prevailing rate in half made it possible for the common people to have telephone service, has in the past few months, with its brand new plant, doubled its business. Last week several thousand feet of new cable was strung to accommodate the number of subscribers who are daily being added to the company's exchange.

The Newark Telephone company today announces a new service and a new rate on certain class of service. For $1 a month a four party line will be put in your home, for $1.50 a month an independent line in residence, for $1.25 a two party selective signal phone will be installed in your home. This style of instrument rings only the party wanted and is ideal service for families. Only two parties on the line and your bell rings only when you are wanted. For $1.50 a month the company puts in a four party business house line and for $2 a month an independent business house line is given.

Remember this is the company that is growing; this is the company that has 35 stations in Licking county; this is the company that has free service with the exchange at Granville; this is the company that has direct connection with exchanges at Hebron, Utica, Johnstown, Homer and Pataskala, and which gives a ten cent rate to all Licking county points; this is the company that made a 10 cent rate to Columbus possible; this is the company that has the Central Energy system that does away with the annoyance of ringing up Central; this is the company that is made up of more than 35 Newark men and women; this is the company that in the past year has spent $60,000 in rebuilding and enlarging its plant; this is the company that gives the better service.

Persons wishing telephone service are invited to look over our new subscribers' lists, are invited to inspect out new plant, and are invited to have the "new" phone installed.

The price is right, the service is good. Our franchise will not permit an advance in rates to exceed $2 a month. What would you pay for telephone service in Newark if it were not for the Independent company? What did you pay before this company was established? Think it over a little.

Newark Independent Telephone Company 38 1-2 North 3d St. Over Weiant Bakery.

It is enough to say that I suffered, was nearly helpless and could get nothing to help until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store. I happened to read in one of the local papers something pertaining to them, and I went there and got some. I was much surprised at the quickness of the relief they gave and I have told lots of other people about them."

HANNA REMAINS SILENT

While Tom L. Johnson Prefers His Charges—Democratic Candidate Makes a Telling Speech Before Large Audience at Chillicothe

Chillicothe, O., Sept. 24.—"If you expect me to waste much time answering the speeches made here last Saturday by Senator Hanna and others I warn you right now that you are destined to be disappointed," began Mayor Johnson when he rose last night to face the vastest concourse of people that has assembled to hear him during this campaign.

"Tell me," he continued, "those of you who heard the speech last Saturday, what was there said that is for me to answer. Did you hear Senator Hanna or the others advance any arguments? Did you hear any of them attempt to answer the charges which we make or attack the principles which we advocate? If you did, then I want to say that the newspapers did not treat Senator Hanna and his friends fairly. I carefully read all the reports of their speeches and I failed to find a single logical reason why the Republican ticket should be elected, or a single answer to the charges we make—and we make some pretty serious charges, I promise you. Senator Hanna says that his street railroad is his savings bank, and that if he cannot attend to politics and his business, too, he will give up politics. Now, Senator Hanna is sincere in that; when he finds that he cannot attend to both his politics and his business he will give up his politics. But he doesn't find it necessary to give up either. He goes right on using his power as leader of the Republican party and as United States senator, to help his own private business interests and those of his friends. That is what I charge him with and that is what I maintain that he hasn't a right to do.

"There is this difference in the charges which I make against Senator Hanna and the charges which he makes against me. I invite him to come into the tent or send his representative if he does not wish to come too close to me and defend himself. If he does not wish to come to the tent I will meet him before any audiences he likes and will make my charges to his face and give him an opportunity to answer them. He knows this is true—I have extended this invitation to him time and again. But Senator Hanna when he makes charges against me does not invite me to come into his meeting and defend myself. Do you think that if he charged me with using my power as mayor of Cleveland to further the interests of my own private book and invited me to come forward and defend myself—do you think that I wouldn't be there? Why, I'd be there, whether he made the charges in this state or out of it, if I had to walk.

"Now as to the first charge I make against Senator Hanna—and right here let me tell you that if he answered these charges he would have to admit they are true. I charge that Senator Hanna helped to elect a city council in Cleveland pledged to extend the franchises of his street railway for twenty-five years at a five cent fare. And this council was about to extend his franchises when the people rose in mighty protest. Mass meetings were held all over the city and citizens went to the council chamber with ropes. The franchises were not extended, but the people, to be on the safe side, elected their humble servant, and a council pledged not to extend these franchises. Then Senator Hanna set about to pull down Cleveland's form of government and he did it through his tool, Attorney General Sheets. Mr. Sheets was the only man in Ohio who could have brought that ouster suit and he brought it when ordered to do so by Senator Hanna—and Senator Hanna used the power he has over Attorney General Sheets to help his street railroad.

"We had a city board of equalization in Cleveland, appointed by the city administration, that raised the tax valuations of Senator Hanna's street railroad and the other public service corporations over $20,000,000. Then Senator Hanna, as the leader of the Republican party, had four state officials at Columbus, the state board of equalization, set aside that increase. And they never gave a single reason for doing it. They did not even claim that the city board had made the valuation too high. The city board had valued Senator Hanna's street railroad at less than $6,000,000. About two months ago he sold his road, and in the deed of transfer the price of his road was fixed at $10,000,000. But not satisfied with having his taxes reduced, Senator Hanna went further. He used his power as the manager of the Republican legislature to have a law passed wiping out the city board and establishing in its place the board of review. And this board, composed of three men, was appointed by a state official at Columbus. Three men were appointed who were pledged not to increase the valuation of Senator Hanna's street railroad, and they have remained true to their pledges—they have not increased it one penny.

"I can make more charges, but do you want more? Senator Hanna stands the confessed champion of monopoly—the defender of trusts, and ever since he has been in the United States senate he has been trying to get a law enacted whereby the government will pay millions of dollars subsidy every year to the ship trust. If these charges are not true, why does not Senator Hanna deny them? I'll tell you—he relies on the 80,000 Republican majority in Ohio; he thinks he can win without answering. Well, maybe he can; it's for the people to say. They say Ohio must go Republican this fall that Senator Hanna may be vindicated. Vindicated for what? Vindicated for using his power as a senator and a Republican leader to help his own private interests and those of his friends? My friends, it's a long jump from the Republican party of Abraham Lincoln down to the Republican party of Senator Hanna. Lincoln was for the people. Senator Hanna is for himself and his business and political friends. If Lincoln were alive today he would be as much of a Democrat as would Jefferson if he were still living.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Frank D. Hall, druggist.

Queen Lou.

What makes the cloud of dust arise across the velvet track? What is it in the midst that moves with speed that doesn't slack? Why do the people crane their necks? Why do their eyeballs flash? What is the noise of breaking things? It's records gone to smash! For Dillon, great Lou Dillon, makes them wonder where they're at. By circling round the magic course in just two minutes flat!

Lou Dillon, Lou Dillon, you're the greatest of 'em all! You knocked the props from under and you gave 'em such a fall! You clinched your fame forever as around the course you flew. Lou Dillon, Lou Dillon, here's a double health to you!—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

FIGHTING DUNCANS OF UNCLE SAM'S ARMY.

Have Been Yankee Soldiers Since the Beginning and One Now Commands Ft. Leavenworth.

Ft. Leavenworth, Sept. 24.—Almost from the day of the organization of the American army the "Fighting" Duncans have played their parts in its affairs. There have been nine of them, all told, and the third in direct line from Col. Matthew Duncan, colonel of the First dragoons, Col. Jos. W. Duncan, Sixth infantry, has just assumed command at Fort Leavenworth, the most important command outside of Washington.

Col. Duncan has the distinction of being the youngest colonel of the 90 or more in the army. Col. Duncan is a native of Texas, but at the time of his entrance to the regular army in 1873 he was a resident of St. Joseph, Mo. He was examined at Fort Leavenworth and it is a coincidence that 30 years after, almost to the day, he was assigned to the command of the post. It is also a coincidence that his father and his grandfather before him commanded at Fort Leavenworth.

All three of them fought in the civil war as officers, his father as a general and himself as a boy hardly old enough to carry a gun. Col. Duncan made considerable of a reputation as an Indian fighter and was brevetted for gallantry in action at Clearwater, Idaho, in July, 1877.

BUCKEYE LAKE

REGRET OVER RESIGNATION OF COL. W. C. WELLS.

Jonah Walters Has Begun to Operate
His Cane Mill, Making Molasses.
Personal Items.

Buckeye Lake, Sept. 24.—The many friends of Colonel W. C. Wells in this vicinity as well as in Newark, Columbus and elsewhere regret that he is about to sever his connection with Buckeye Lake Park. Through Colonel Wells' efforts the park has become one of the best known in central Ohio. Mr. Wells has taken a personal interest in his guests and has made an earnest and successful effort to entertain all who visited the lake. Mr. Wells has several other propositions in view, but is not prepared to say at the present time what he will do the coming year. He has done much for Buckeye Lake and his resignation is regretted by many.

Jonah Walters has begun operations with his cane mill, and from indications quite a lot of sorghum is to be made. Mr. Walters has remodeled his furnace and also some work in his cane boiling room and yard. Mr. Walters is known quite well over the southern part of Licking county and for the present and the coming three weeks Mr. Walters can be seen at his mill. It is well worth a visit to this mill to see modern apparatus in motion superintended by an up-to-date man.

Miss Nellie Neel is spending a few days of this week with friends and relatives in Thornville.

Miss Fay Pickle and Mrs. G. W. Shewalter spent a few days of last week in Columbus, the guest of friends.

Mrs. Reason Roby, who for some time has been quite ill, has suffered a relapse and is confined to her room.

Mrs. C. D. Bounds and Miss Mella Roby attended services at Fairmount Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Skocumb, of Licking, spent Sunday with L. H. Bounds and family.

Mr. H. R. Elrich was thrown from a horse Thursday, badly injuring his side.

Herbert Walters and Willie Rosebraugh were in Newark Sunday.

Roy Fickel and William Hunt enjoyed Friday afternoon hunting ducks, killing quite a number. Roy and William are our crack shots and leading sportsmen.

GRANVILLE

DR. SHEPARDSON TALKS TO HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS.

Miss Sarah Evans Who Was Thought to be a Hopeless Cripple is Now Recovering.

Granville, O., Sept. 24.—Dr. Frank W. Shepardson, professor of history in Chicago university, during his recent visit to Granville, his old home, made a very interesting talk to the pupils of the Granville High school. He chose for his subject the important and historical one of the Louisiana Purchase, about which most of the American people are now talking in view of the great exposition at St. Louis next year in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of that purchase. It is needless to say that the Doctor, with his vast fund of information and deep research of historical subjects, made the question an exceedingly interesting and valuable one, and gave to the pupils of the High school a definite knowledge of the subject that they could not possibly have acquired in any other way.

Miss Sarah Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of this place, who for nearly two years, has been a cripple, and who for some time was thought to have permanently lost the use of her limbs is, to the surprise of her many friends, rapidly improving, and if all indications do not fail, will soon be as well as ever. Nearly every one in Granville is thoroughly conversant with this case, and the story of Miss Evans' recovery is indeed a remarkable one. After the case had been given up by numerous physicians, she placed herself in the hands of a well known Columbus physician, and from the first treatment there was a marked improvement in her condition. Ten months ago she was barely able to stand on her feet, and was able to get around only with the greatest difficulty. Today she has the full use of all her limbs and her ultimate restoration to perfect health is only a matter of a short time. Her case, by many, is considered little short of a miracle.

Mrs. W. E. Clemens, who has been visiting in Battle Creek and other points in Michigan, has returned home after having had a very delightful visit.

New Musical Feature—Bible
Classes to be Resumed

Secretary A. A. Ebersole announces that he has just secured Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of the Ohio State university, to deliver an address at Taylor hall on Sunday afternoon, October 4. This will be the opening address in the winter series of Sunday afternoon meetings for men. Dr. Thompson, who is a former Licking county man, having been born at Brownsville, is a very forceful and eloquent speaker.

At the same time the Bible classes will be resumed and the Sunday evening lunches, which were so successful last year, will be taken up again.

A new feature this year will be a sacred concert from 3 to 3:30 preceding the afternoon address.

The Denison conservatory of music will furnish the musical numbers at the opening meetings. Arrangements have been made to have the Denison students conduct the musical programs during the fall months.

BEGINS SUIT

Against Western Union for Damages
Does the Newark Manager of the Postal Company.

The Advocate received the following telegram from Laporte, Ind., on Thursday morning:
"Mrs. M. A. Swan, manager of the Postal Telegraph and Cable company's office at Newark, Ohio, has brought an action for $25,000 damages against the Western Union Telegraph company for malicious prosecution. The Western Union officials charged Mrs. Swan with misappropriation of funds, but a jury completely exonerated her."

The Advocate carried a copy of the foregoing telegram to Mrs. Swan Thursday, but Mrs. Swan declined to discuss the case further than to admit that she had commenced the suit at Goshen, Ind.

Mrs. Williams Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Williams took place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home, 51 First street, Rev. H. Newton Miller conducting the services.

Mrs. Williams was the mother of Edgar Williams, driver of the horse wagon at the Central fire department, and was a most estimable Christian woman.

The interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

GRIFFITH-BURCHER.

Mr. David E. Griffith, of the East Newark fire department, and Miss Elvretta Burcher, a well known and highly esteemed young woman of the East End, were married on Wednesday evening. The ceremony took place at the First Presbyterian church, and was performed by the pastor, Rev. L. S. Boyce, in the presence of a number of the friends of the contracting parties. The newly wedded couple left immediately after the ceremony on a train for the north, where they will stay for a few days, after which they will return to Newark, where they will make their home at 211 East Main street. They have the best wishes of a host of friends in their new found happiness.

WATER FAMINE

Exists in Lancaster and the Dust is Unbearable—No Sprinkling is Yet Permitted.

Lancaster, O., Sept. 24.—The dust in this city is almost unbearable on windy days. On account of the scarcity of water in the reservoir the board of public service for several days has refused to allow any street or lawn sprinkling and urges the strictest economy on the part of all citizens.

The discomfort will be relieved in a few days, however, as a pump is now being installed in the new pumping station for which $25,000 worth of bonds have been issued.

PENNY SAVINGS DEPARTMENT IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Suit of the City Against W. & L. E.
Railroad is Settled—A Sensational Divorce Case.

Coshocton, O., Sept. 24.—The suit of the city against the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad company to oust them from the position their depot has held for years in the center of Walnut street, was amicably settled out of court, a peaceful victory for the city, the company yielding to the demands.

Mrs. Fessie Lawrence in a petition for divorce from her husband, Luther G. Lawrence, a prominent young farmer, makes sensational allegations, stating that for half an hour one day last week he pressed against her head the muzzle of a gun, threatening to shoot her. They have two young children.

The local board of education has decided to establish a penny savings department in the public schools, declaring that thrift and economy are two important branches of American life.

The Odd Fellows.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 24.—The sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows were resumed and the competitive drills of rival cantons were continued.

In the afternoon there was a parade of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and subordinate lodges, which was witnessed by vast crowds.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge, in secret session last evening, refused to grant to the Rebekah branch of the order the right to establish a death and funeral fund.

A dress parade, concert and ball were given last night in the Fifth regiment armory by the Patriarchs Militant.

The number of persons who attend the service of the Established church in London is steadily sinking and is but little greater than the number attending the non-conformist churches.

Alcohol an Ingredient of Liquid Kidney Remedies WILLIAM ALEXANDER SUFFERED FOR FIVE YEARS FROM ACUTE KIDNEY TROUBLE, NOW A WELL MAN.

Wm. Alexander, 820 Dayton St., Newport, Ky., Aug. 25, 1903, writes: "Having suffered for the past five years from acute kidney trouble and in all that time did not find anything to relieve me, lately Kidney-Wort Tablets were recommended to me by a friend. After using two bottles of tablets I find to my satisfaction that I have been relieved of all my ills. Would gladly recommend Kidney-Wort Tablets to all who may suffer kidney troubles. It is the only medicine that has helped."

Secretly adding alcohol to a liquid kidney remedy should be a penitentiary offense as much as putting poison into a neighbor's well. Liquid remedies contain from 15 to 20 per cent of alcohol, which keeps up the fever in the diseased kidneys. The handy shape of Kidney-Wort Tablets enables one to take the specific more frequently and more regularly. The Tablets are a positive specific for all forms of kidney, bladder, and urinary diseases.

Has your urine, your back, your general health led you to wonder if your kidneys are sound? Write Dr. Pettigill, 511 Burlington, Vermont. Give him your symptoms, he will advise you free.

The World of Sport

Both Local and General.

Coming Events.

The Columbus American Association ball team plays here Saturday.

The Mt. Vernon Shamrocks play at Idlewild Park Sunday.

Demson University's football team plays the Ohio Medics at Columbus on Saturday.

Racing begins at Idlewild half mile track next Wednesday.

Columbus vs. Idlewild Saturday.
"Lefty" Snyder pitched for Columbus Wednesday against Sidney and won his game 8 to 4 holding his opponents safe at all stages, by keeping the 13 hits made off him well scattered. Snyder is in the best condition and will do his best to beat his former comrades when he pitches for Columbus against Idlewild next Saturday.

Opposed to him will be Stone, Idlewild's winning pitcher, and one of the most popular players ever connected with the local team. This struggle between the two masters of the art of twirling will be well worth seeing and a good crowd will undoubtedly attend the game. Manager Driscoll is confident that if Stone is in shape, his team will beat the Senators, and there are many in Newark who share this belief.

The game will be called promptly at 2 o'clock.

Shamrocks of Mt. Vernon Sunday.

The Shamrocks, the strongest baseball team that ever represented Mt. Vernon, will be the attraction at Idlewild Park next Sunday, when they play against the local team.

The Mt. Vernon boys have made a great record this year, and there will be a large crowd of loyal rooters come to Newark to encourage their favorites to victory over Idlewild. It is thought that Nel Mason will pitch the game against Mt. Vernon, and he is said to be at his very best at present.

The Sunday game will be called promptly at 2 o'clock, so that by five every one who attends can be home to supper.

LONG IS A FAVORITE.

A veteran of the diamond, Herman Long, was a few years ago reckoned without a peer in the game. When playing short for the Boston team he was a star of the first magnitude. He began the season this year with the New York Americans, but was traded to Detroit for Norman Elberfeld. He has played good ball for the Michigan metropolis and is a great favorite with the crowds.

Y. M. C. A. FOOTBALL DATES.

The Y. M. C. A. football team will go out on the Athletic field for their first practice tonight. The following games have been booked for October:

3—Neil Athletic club, Columbus.

10—Buckeyes, Columbus.

17—Coshocton.

24—Circleville.

Grand Circuit Races.

The grand circuit races at Columbus Wednesday resulted as follows:

2:11 class, trotting, 3 in 5, purse $2000:

McKinley (Pattison) 2 1 1 1

Hawthorne (Hudson) 1 2 2 2

Dr. Strong (Gahagan) 3 3 3 3

Best time 2:07 1/4.

2:08 class, pacing, 3 in 5, purse $2000 (unfinished):

Winfield (McGuire) 2 1 3 1 2

New Richmond (Benedict) 8 7 0 6 3

Best time 2:08 1/2.

2:21 class trotting, 2 in 3, purse $500:

Bessie Brown (Thomas) 1 3 1

Allen W (McMahon) 3 2 6

Best time 2:13 1/4.

2:17 class, pacing, 2 in 3, purse $800:

Black Pet (Gott) 1 1

Tess (Munch) 2 2

Hard Case (Carnathan) 5 3

Best time 2:08 1/4.

Tess Won Second Money.

Tess, the speedy mare that took second money in the 2:17 pace at Columbus Wednesday is owned by L. L. Munch, now of Dubois, Pa., who formerly lived in Newark and was born near Haver.

Mr. Munch will be the guest for a few days of his aunt, Mrs. A. P. Henderson, of 62 South Third street and other relatives before returning to Dubois.

HENDERSON A YOUNGSTER.

Omaha fans think well of Benny Henderson, the youngster whom Manager Rourke "consented" to give a trial this year. Although young in years and minus the experience necessary to break into the big leagues, Henderson has all the marks of a comer in the game. He has plenty of speed, good control and a head that long ago taught him to study batters and the value of a change of pace.

NEW PACING RECORD ESTABLISHED.

At the same moment that Dan Patch was attempting to lower his own world's pacing record of 1:59 at Columbus, which met with failure by half a second, Prince Alert was being crowned king of harness horses at the Empire City track, New York, having paced the fastest mile in the history of the turf, his time for the mile being 1:57, two seconds faster than the former record held by Dan Patch. The time by quarters was: 1:29 1/2, 1:26 1/4, 1:57.

Prince Alert is owned by James Haulcy, of Providence, R. I. He has for some time been a candidate for championship honors, and while many good judges looked for him to beat 1:59, few, if any, ever dreamed that the great pacer would clip off two seconds from the record in one trial.

In his efforts the new champion was driven by the noted Kentuckian, Jack Curry. Mart Demarest, the regular trainer and driver of Prince Alert, thought that Curry, with a lighter weight, would have an advantage over him, and he gave the seat to Curry, preferring to drive the runner, which was to set the pace with a wind shield. Thus Demarest sacrificed the chance to drive the greatest mile to harness just to aid his horse's chance of accomplishing the wonderful feat.

FASHION IN SPEECH.

Some Words Go Out of Favor and Win Their Way Back.

The history of the race is written in the words it uses. As we grow and change, so our language grows and changes. Mr. Leon Mead in his book "Word Coinage" points out that some words go out of fashion and come back, like tan shoes and wide rimmed hats, although the change in words is much slower than the change in dress.

In Spenser's day "forestall," "fain," "scathes," "askance," "embellish" and "dapper" were not considered good, but they have since gained respectability and won their place in the language. The seventeenth century regarded as obsolete a number of Chaucer's words—"transcend," "bland," "sphere," "blithe," "franchise," "carve," "antheme." One by one these words came to life again and walk the pages of our literature in full vitality. Other words now indispensable which the seventeenth century rejected are "plumage," "tapestry," "tissue," "ledge," "trenchant," "resource," "villainy," "thrill," "yelp," "dovetail."

Bacon did not have the good word "encyclopedia," but used the heavy equivalent, "circle learning."

Fulke, the sixteenth century author who wrote "A Defense of the Sincere and True Translations of the Holle Scriptures Into the English Tong" did not admit "neophyte," "homicide," "scandal," "destruction," "tunic," "despicable," "rational." Another book published in 1658 puts the stamp of censure on "oblique," "radiant," "adoption," "caress," "amphibious," "horizontal," "concede," "articulate," "destination," "compensate," "complicated" and "adventitious."

It is hard to trace the history of a fashion in words. Seldom do we have the precise record that Chesterfield furnishes us in a letter in which he says that he was present at the birth of the word "flirtation" on the lips of a beautiful woman. Even with that record we cannot tell why "flirtation" remained in the language and was not dropped like hundreds of other new coinages.

She Was Satisfied.

"Are you satisfied that he loves you as much as he says?"

"Oh, yes; he was engaged to Nell last year, and she said he only told her once every two hours that she was the light of his life. He tells me the same thing every twenty minutes."—Cincinnati Commercial.

Briggs-Gilder has taken me out in his automobile quite frequently of late. Grizes—Well, I suppose he wants to have you shave his pleasures.
